FORMER BLAIRMORE SCHOOL GIRL MARRIES AT BANFF

Banff, Sept. 17.—In a setting of brilliant hued autumn leaves and a profusion of flowers, the wedding of Grace, third daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wheatley, of Banff, and Elmer Robinson Charlton, third son of Mrs. Charlton and the late Mr. J. F. Charlton, of Calgary, was solemnized at St. George's church here on Saturday evening, Rev. H. T. Montgomery officiating.

The bride, lovely in a gown of white chantilly lace and tulle, with flowing veil and orange blossoms, and carrying a bouquet of Dorothy Perkins' red roses, was escorted to the altar by her father, who gave her in marriage. Miss Mina Pettie, of Calgary, charmingly gowned in pink silk, net with blue trimmings, large picture hat to match and carrying a bouquet of pink asters, was bridesmaid. Mr. Malcolm Charlton, of Calgary, brother of the groom, was best man. Mrs. Wheatley, mother of the bride, was attired in black georgette and velvet, with large picture hat to match, and a corsage of red roses; and Mrs. Charlton, the groom's mother, in pink lace, picture hat and corsage of cream roses. Mr. H. Davis officiated as organist.

Following the ceremony, a reception, attended by more than fifty guests, was held at the home of the bride's parents, which was also decorated with autumn leaves and a variety of flowers.

The young couple left later on a two weeks' motor trip to coast cities. On their return, they will reside on Muskat Street, Banff.—Ex.

One of the first jobs assigned D. C. Coleman, the newly appointed first vice-president of the C.P.R., was that of clerk in the company superintendent's office at Cranbrook. Three years later he rose to the clerkship in the office of the general superintendent at North Bay, Ontario, and returned to western lines in a similar capacity in 1904. He became superintendent of western lines, with headquarters in Winnipeg, in 1918.

I.O.D.E. CELEBRATE FOURTEENTH ANNIVERSARY

The fourteenth anniversary of the formation of Crow's Nest Chapter of the I.O.D.E. was fittingly celebrated by members and friends at the Lodge hall last night.

Following bridge and whist, supper was served and prizes distributed, and dancing followed for several hours.

DOCTOR FACES SERIOUS CHARGE

Charged with having interfered with the dead body of Alma Armstrong, 26-year-old girl who died in the Royal Alexandra Hospital, Edmonton, on August 25, as a result of a gunshot wound in the neck, Dr. C. G. Giegie will appear in justice court for his alleged actions in having removed a section of skin from the girl's wrist and having pictures taken of her body while she lay in a funeral home.

WHERE HONOR IS DUE

Good service is always deserving of recognition, no matter how humble the service may be. A small item of news in the Calgary paper strikes a pleasant note in a world that is not characterized by pleasantness. It is in the nature of a thought from Mr. Reader, parks superintendent of Calgary, who suggests that several of the beauty spots of the city have been made beautiful by the unmeasured service of some of the relief workers, and might very suitably be named for these men. This is one of the rare and kindly thoughts that brightens life and makes all work truly worthwhile.

How few words of praise have been bestowed upon our relief workers. There is little distinction made between the devoted worker and the laggard. These people are bunched under the one ignominious title of relief workers. Yet every day, the work of their hands is visible for us to see if we choose to regard it in the light that it deserves.

In our town, and to a larger extent in the cities, the manual labor of relief workers has borne fruit in neater streets and more beautiful parks, in a care and orderliness not apparent in more prosperous years. The Banff-Jasper highway, the Jasper-Edmonton highway, and other roads and provincial projects will stand as a memorial to those men who labored conscientiously and on pitifully small pay, with lives stripped of comfortable normal outlook. When the grand total is summed up, it may be found that these workers have contributed more of permanent value to the country than many who now regard them with indifference, if not critical eyes.

It is not possible to make any great distinctions in wages amongst these men. It is not possible for the country to pay the good workers as much as they deserve, or to cut off the poor workers as ruthlessly as they deserve. But it is possible to recognize service in other ways. It is possible to dignify the toil for those who are seeking to preserve their manhood and their habits of work in face of discouraging odds. There are some men who develop an enthusiasm and pride in their work, and this enthusiasm is built into their humblest effort. This quality of character is priceless to an individual and a nation. Mr. Reader's suggestion that certain parks be named for the men who have cared for them and nursed them to beauty might be carried farther into the field of relief work. And his disposition to comment openly on good service well rendered might be copied by others. This is a little gesture which helps to make a hard life more livable.—Ex.

CRANBROOK SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA PREPARES FOR BLAIRMORE FESTIVAL

Again rehearsals have been commenced by the Cranbrook Symphony orchestra for the forthcoming season, which promises to be an active one. At present these practices are being held in the Masonic temple. This will be the third season for the orchestra under the baton of Mr. William Raven, and gives every promise of being the best.

Just now the orchestra is working up quite a pretentious program for a concert to be given on a week night towards the end of October. This concert will be staged just prior to the Crow's Nest Pass Musical Festival at Blairmore, the dates for which have been set for Thursday, Friday and Saturday, October 25th, 26th and 27th. It will be noted on the program the two test pieces that will be played in the Blairmore competition. While it is yet too early to state definitely, it is the general opinion that a special train will again be chartered to carry the competitors and those attending from Cranbrook and Kimberley to Blairmore for the big musical feast. The plan worked out last year with the C.P.R. seemed very satisfactory.

The Cranbrook orchestra will be considerably increased in number, and is expected to be at least 30 strong at the first concert.

The numbers chosen for the Crow's Nest Pass festival are (a) Prelude in C-sharp Minor (Rachmaninoff) and (b) Suite Death from the Peer Gynt Suite (Grieg).

Regular weekly rehearsals are held on Tuesday evenings at 8 o'clock, and Sunday afternoons at 3 o'clock. Cranbrook Courier.

MAPLE LEAVES CONTEST

Canadians are maple leaf minded. Magnificent autumn leaves, tinted with all the flaming colors of early fall, are being received in ever increasing numbers, for judging in the nation-wide competition being conducted by the Canadian National and Canadian Pacific railways. This year's competition for the most beautiful maple leaf, and for the largest leaf, is going to be exceptionally keen, according to reports from the railway officials in charge. Hundreds of beautiful leaves have already been received from appreciative nature lovers in the provinces of Nova Scotia, New Brunswick, Quebec and Ontario, while leaves from the prairie provinces and British Columbia are beginning to put in an appearance. More than 10,000 leaves were received in first competition held last fall, and this year present indications lead those concerned to the opinion that the total will be far more than twice that number.

SITTING FOR THE DRINKS

A coroner's jury exonerated a hotel-keeper who was charged with giving beer to an intoxicated man until he collapsed and died. The jury found that when a man is sitting down while drinking beer the hotel-keeper cannot gauge the degree of intoxication as he could if the drinker were standing. The old bar had such a bad name that in provinces that permit the retail sale of beer it is decreed that the drinker shall sit while imbibing. The result is that he generally drinks by the bottle instead of the glass and does not realize how full he is until he tries to stand or walk.—Ex.

The English press are proud of the fact that a nobleman, the Duke of Manchester, is running a coffee stand in England. Alberta has lots of English nobleman running "Rawneches" in Alberta. Bah jove its really ripping what these noble Johnnies will do, don't-cher-know.

BRIDE-ELECT HONORED

Mrs. H. Harrison, Bellevue, was hostess at a delightfully arranged linen shower, honoring Miss Ina Wood, whose marriage takes place in Montreal in October. Five tables of bridge was enjoyed, honors going to Mrs. Coastick and Mrs. Barlass.

The hostess served a dainty lunch, after which the bride-to-be received many useful and beautiful gifts.

Invited guests included Misses I. Wood, Y. Harrison, P. Coastick, C. Coastick, M. Hallworth, Medames A. Hallworth, F. Hallworth, J. Shevels, H. Barlass, S. J. Lamey, J. J. McIntyre, A. C. ## THE FINANCIAL POST AND THE LABATT KIDNAPERS

The Post in commenting on the ill success of bringing the Labatt kidnapers to bay remarks, that so long as the Labatt outrage remains unsolved, the average Canadian citizen will wonder if he and his family are safe. We humbly beg to differ with The Post in that the average Canadian citizen lacks the millions, which makes the victim attractive to the kidnapper. Hence the lack of big money also has its advantages.—Strathmore Standard.

STOP-OVERS ON LOCAL ROUND TRIP TICKETS

Change in conditions under which the railways will sell local thirty-day round-trip tickets will, in future, allow stop-overs enroute, it was stated by Mr. Passmore, Canadian Pacific agent at Blairmore today.

Previously, Mr. Passmore explained, a passenger buying a ticket with a thirty-day limit, for example, to Winnipeg, was required to use ticket for continuous passage to and from Winnipeg only. After October 1st a similar ticket, without further cost or obligation, will permit the passenger to stop at any point, going or returning, between the starting point and destination, within limit.

Misses Nora McLeod, Wilma Halliwell and Muriel Jackson left Coleman last week for Edmonton, where they commence probationary periods as nurses-in-training at the University hospital.

Ronald Keith, 20 year old son of H. P. Keith, deputy minister of public works for Alberta, plans an extensive tour of Asiatic and European countries to study conditions there prior to commencing study for a trade commissioner office. He will go to Japan first.

WORLD HAPPENINGS BRIEFLY TOLD

Bound for England after six years as British high commissioner to Canada, Sir William Clark sailed from New York to Great Britain.

The British Columbia government will construct a new bridge across the Fraser river at New Westminster, Premier T. D. Pattullo has announced.

The Nazis' political soldiers—the brown shirt storm troops and the black shirt storm troops—have come to stay. Adolf Hitler asserted at the Nazis' annual party congress in Nuremberg, Germany.

A new deal for soap-box orators was declared when Robert Moses, commissioner of New York parks, announced that nine city parks, in addition to traditional Union Square, will be available for open-air meetings.

The general business outlook in Great Britain has brightened since June, Sir Josiah Stamp, high commissioner of New York, announced that the Bank of England, declared before members of the Aberdeen Chamber of Commerce.

An Irish Free State army aeroplane, with three occupants crashed in the garden of Judge Meredith's home in Dublin. Lieutenant Arthur Russell and Private Twomey were burned to death; Sergeant Canavan jumped clear of the wreckage but was seriously injured.

With a view to developing a market in Japan for British Columbia sheep, the government has made a trial shipment of Shropshire sheep for breeding purposes, Premier T. D. Pattullo said. The shipment was made by the Heian Maru.

Reports to the executive council of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association showed imports into Canada from Empire countries during July increased by more than 30 per cent, compared with July, 1933, and exports increased by about 17 per cent. The Newfoundland commission government disapproved of plans laid before it by the St. John's municipal council to supply funds for charity and civic improvements by lottery. The commission government threatened legislative action to prohibit it if necessary.

Leaves For England

British High Commissioner in Canada Transferred To South Africa
Concluding six years as British high commissioner in Canada, Sir William Clark has returned to England. He will leave the Old Country about the beginning of the new year to take a similar post to the Union of South Africa and Basutoland, Bechuanaland, Swaziland which are generally known as "the territories." Sir Francis Flood, new British high commissioner to Canada, will arrive in Ottawa about January 1.

Portuguese Africa, Mexico, Jamaica, Australia, British South Africa, British India, Argentina, Chile, Newfoundland, United States, French Africa, British East Africa, Southern Rhodesia, Malta, New Zealand, St. Pierre et Miquelon, Austria, Palestine, Straits Settlements, Uruguay, Peru, Italy, France, Denmark, and the British Isles are the countries to which Canada exported farm implements or farm machinery during the month of July, 1934.

New Radio Tube
A new radio tube has been invented which is said to be vastly more powerful and efficient than those now in common use. Because the new tube has no filament, no grid and no gas field, it is virtually indestructible.

Peasants Superstitions

Chinese Angry When Authorities Disbelieve Power Of Gods

The deep-rooted superstitions of the farmers of the Yangtze Valley who believe in the power of their dragon gods to bring much-needed rain have brought about several clashes with the authorities and with private persons, and in several cases these clashes have resulted in the deaths of the farmers.

In Kiangshan, a town in southern Chekiang province, the farmers, incensed over the fact that the local Kiumintang office expressed disbelief in the powers of the gods, raided the offices and completely destroyed them.

At Chungteh, the offices of the magistrate were surrounded by a group of farmers who forced the magistrate to conduct prayer services before the dragon god. The farmers threatened to kill the magistrate if he refused to obey their commands and pray for rain. So aggressive did the farmers become that the magistrate ordered his bodyguard to open fire, with the result that one farmer was killed and several wounded.

Near the town of Yuyao a school principal was killed by a mob of 2,000 infuriated peasants when he tried to convince them that praying to wooden and clay gods would not bring the desired rain. The band of peasants was returning from a prolonged service at one of the temples when the school principal stopped them, and made a speech on the benefits of irrigation in comparison to the benefits of praying to the temple images. So infuriated did the crowd become that they attacked the speaker and literally tore him to pieces.

Film Stars' Handwriting Analysed

By LAWRENCE HIBBERT
(Grapho-Analyst)
(All Rights Reserved)

(Editor's Note: This article will be found especially interesting, dealing as it does with well-known film stars. What does YOUR handwriting tell? See the invitation following this article.)

A correspondent sends me samples of the writing of several well-known people, and asks me to analyse the writing for her. There is so much interest in these analyses, that I am making them the subject of a special article.

Perhaps you have wondered why many men have been led into the different pursuits in which they have gained fame and fortune. It is immensely interesting to think of what might have been if different individuals had been born with traits of character that were entirely different from the real characteristics of their nature.

Men and women are born into this world with definite talents and abilities that they must learn in order to take full advantage of them. Some go through life and never learn their proper talents, while others find and develop them early in life.

Ramon Novarro, the prominent film star, is particularly fortunate in finding his talent and making it the driving force of his life. His writing shows a man who is sure of himself, and who has seen his film career, that he is a great dramatic actor—that he can interpret a role in a way that few men can even approach, but he has also another ability and another very outstanding talent with which he has won recognition—his ability in music. The rhythm and breaks in his writing show immediately to the hand-writing analyst—a talent and appreciation of the musical arts.

As an operatic singer, Ramon Novarro has achieved fame that is not often given to a man. His talent in music is well-known, and is, perhaps, his first choice of expression. He has still another characteristic, creative ability. His writing shows an ability to use his hands in a creative way—perhaps in painting, sculpture, or some other means of expression. Few men are so handily so pronounced artistic ability in so many lines—drama, music and the sculpture arts.

Take the handwriting of John Boles, another star. The dominant note in his character is his self-reliance. This is the quality that makes him depend only on himself for anything that he wants done. He is not sure (quite the contrary) to his many friends, but, at the same time, he looks to one man only to get it—and that man is himself. John Boles could not be anything else if he desired—there is an independence of thought and action that will not allow him to think of help when he has a problem to face. He is close-mouthed about his personal affairs, and will usually have heard solved before other people have heard about them. Decisive, quick thinking—a man of action—John Boles. If you want a personal reading of what your own writing reveals, send a letter in your normal handwriting,

Gold Strike

Find Of Great Importance In Northern Saskatchewan

Strike of gold on the shores of Lake Athabasca, north-western Saskatchewan is a find of major importance, according to Hon. T. C. Davis, K.C.

Mr. Davis returned from Edmonton recently, where he met several prospectors just back from Lake Athabasca. Reports were favorable to the gold find, he said.

The strike lies 60 miles east of the Alberta boundary in Saskatchewan, and is easily accessible by water, since the quartz lies right on the lake shore. Assays as high as $100 have been reported.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

SEPTEMBER 23

ISAIAH COUNSELS RULERS

Golden text: "Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace, whose mind is stayed on thee," because he trusted in thee." Isaiah 26:3.

Lesson: Isaiah, Chapters 7, 31, 36 and 37.

Devotional Reading: Psalm 21:1-7.

Explanations And Comments

Trust not in Egypt, but in Jehovah, 31:1-3. When Isaiah tells about his call to be a prophet, in the sixth chapter, he begins by saying, "In the year that King Uzziah died, I saw also the Lord." Others saw only the dying king; Isaiah always saw through events to God who is back of them. The rulers of Judah realize that there is imminent peril of Jerusalem's being taken by the Assyrians, but they give no thought of God. Isaiah pronounced war upon them for going down to Egypt for help, relying upon the horses, chariots and weapons of that country in the hour of their peril, and failing to seek the help of Jehovah. "Jehovah, too, is wise," the prophet proclaims (the speaks satirically), and he will bring calamity upon the evildoers. The Egyptians are men, not God, as the rulers of Judah seem to think; their horses are flesh, not spirit; when Jehovah acts, both helper and helped will fall and be destroyed together.

"This satire was the shaft best fitted to pierce the folly of the rulers of Judah," George Adam Smith comments. "Wisdom, a reasonable plan for their times and prudence in carrying out the best thing they thought of associating with God, whom they relegated to what they called their religion—their temples, worship, and poetry."

A Call to Reform, 31:6-9. Turn ye unto him from whom ye have deeply revolted. O children of Israel; put away your idols.

"It is the duty of nations as well as of men, to recognize the power of the overruling power of God, to confess their sins and transgressions in sorrow, and with assured hope that genuine repentance will lead to mercy and pardon; and to recognize the sublime truth announced in the Holy Scriptures and proven by all history that those nations only are blessed whose God is the Lord." (Linn.)

Turn to Jehovah and your foe, the Assyrians, shall fall, not by the sword of man, but by the stroke of God. "In the great crisis of her history, the invasion by Sennacherib, Judah was saved, as England was saved from the Armada, neither by strength of her bulwarks, for they had been burnt, nor by the valor of her men, for her heart had gone from them, but because, apart from human help, God himself crushed her insolent foes in the moment of their triumph."

Little Journeys in Science

ATMOSPHERIC PHENOMENA

(By Gordon H. Gunt, M.A.)

Dust, commonly associated with the gritty particles which fill the air in the corner of "dust storms", is in reality responsible for some of the greatest beauties in nature. Blue skies, purple twilight and rain drops are caused by small dust particles which fill the air. Day would be almost black, at night, scientists say, if it were not that the particles of dust break up all the components of white light except the blue which we see in the sky. Sunset, with its richly-colored clouds, is the result of dust particles blotting out all the red, orange and yellow, leaving only the white light, except those we see reflected in the sky. Twilight is the reflection of the slanting sunlight from particles of dust high in the air.

To dust, too, is due the rain and snow fall. Moisture in the clouds forms into drops or flakes by clinging around the small dust particles suspended in the air. Rain clouds usually travel about a mile above the earth.

The "ring around the moon" which is a common phenomenon in cold weather, is caused by ice crystals in high clouds. The crystals break up the moon's light and scatter some of the colors, reflecting others, and giving the familiar effect. "Sun dogs" across the sky are produced in this same way.

Sun spots activities projected on the atmosphere, are responsible for two other common spectacles in the sky, the aurora borealis and the rainbow. Contrary to popular belief, the rainbow forms a full circle in the sky, and not the arc which we are familiar. Could man ascend high enough into the air he would perceive the rainbow in its entirety. This has been accomplished by airmen in recent years.

After Biddy had quit her nest in a field with only a few of her eggs hatched, Old Sol came to the nest and two weeks later two more chicks broke through the shells. ## Stay On The

It seems difficult, sometimes, to stay on the Gold Standard, but the "rolled" standard—ah! that's something else again. Once a man has "rolled his own" with Ogdens' Fine Cut he's on this "Rolled" standard of smoking enjoyment for life.

Ogdens' is might easy to roll and it does give a smoother, cooler and more fragrant smoke... To try Ogdens' is to like Ogdens'—particularly if you use "Chanticleer" or "Vogue" Cigarette Papers. Ogdens' Fine Cut and either of these makes of cigarette papers assure you a standard of satisfaction that's well worth staying on.

Excavations Important

May Prove Valuable In Tracing Migration From Asia To America

Archaeological discoveries expected to prove of great value in tracing the migration of peoples from Asia to the Alutian Islands in Alaska and thence to continental North America was reported at Cordova, Alaska, by Dr. Alex Hrdlicka, curator of the United States national museum. Dr. Hrdlicka and his five student assistants unearthed a wall 350 feet long and 16 feet high in their excavations of Uyak bay. At the site of the wall were found many implements and remains of ancient Alaskan cultures which Dr. Hrdlicka said substantiated the contention that two prehistoric races had lived there at different ages.

BEEF TEXAS STYLE

Cut cold roast beef in thin, uniform slices and reheat in a sauce made as follows:

- 1 onion
- 1 tablespoon butter
- 2 green peppers
- 1 cup canned tomatoes
- 1 tablespoon Worcestershire sauce
- 3 drops tobacco
- 1 teaspoon sugar
- Salt and pepper

Slice onion and fry in butter until soft and yellow. Add finely chopped pepper and tomatoes. Simmer until thick. Add seasonings and meat. Cook until meat is hot. Serve garnished with small triangles of thin buttered toast.

APPLE JELLY

Use tart apples that are barely ripe or slightly under-ripe. Wash and cut the fruit in slices about 1/4 inch thick, leaving the peels on. Add water to cover, about 2 cups to each pound of fruit. Cook 15 or 20 minutes, or until soft. Strain through a cheesecloth bag and then through a funnel one. Add 1/4 cup sugar to each cup of sour apple juice, or 1/2 cup sugar to each cup of juice of moderate acidity. Boil to the jelling point and fill glasses.

CHAPTER I.

"When you tell me that you're going out to Crevasse County to claim your half of the old Hour-glass ranch, I tell you, Mr. Carr, that you're just asking for trouble."

Simon Burwell, first vice-president of the Drovers Bank in Cato, leaned back in his chair, spread his hands tip-to-tip and stared at his visitor. He took him in from head to foot and frankly liked what he saw. Then he studied an open letter on his desk.

"Your uncle was a good friend of mine," he said. "But he was very careless or unwise to make the will he did."

"What do you mean?" Gerald Keene straightened up in his chair and Simon Burwell grinned at him. "Don't carry a chip on your shoulder, my boy. I'm not criticizing old Peter. Why, boy, I loved him. Your uncle lived many years in the West. He and old Joe Carr were partners for years. It was quite natural that when Peter died he should leave the Hour-glass ranch to his partner, Joe Carr. But when he dragged you in to the matter he only complicated matters. How long since you saw your uncle?"

"I never laid eyes on him in my life," said Keene. "He was my mother's brother and the family was widely separated. I happened to learn of the bequest quite accidentally. I had been . . . in business . . . in the Northwest and I happened to drop in at my old home. There I learned about the will so I got the letter from Judge Frame to you to identify myself. The old judge told me that you have always handled the ranch's business. That's so, isn't it, sir?"

"It has never kept me busy, I'm sorry to say," said Burwell. "There is no business worthy speaking of. You're the half owner of a big ranch that doesn't pay a dollar of dividends . . . and won't. Have you seen your uncle's will?"

Burwell did not wait a reply. He went to a wall safe and came back with a slim document that he read meticulously, accenting every word.

Way to Ease Headaches, Pain Almost Instantly

METHOD OFTEN RELIEVES NEURALGIA AND RHEUMATIC PAINS IN MINUTES!

Remember the pictures below when you want fast relief from pain. Demand and get the method doctors prescribe—Aspirin. Millions have found that Aspirin eases even a bad headache, neuritis or rheumatic pain often in a few minutes!

In the stomach as in the glass here, an Aspirin tablet starts to dissolve, or disintegrate, almost the instant it touches moisture. It begins "taking hold" of your pain practically as soon as you swallow it. Equally important, Aspirin is safe. For scientific tests show this: Aspirin does not harm the heart.

Remember these two points: Aspirin Speed and Aspirin Safety. And, see that you get ASPIRIN. It is made in Canada, and all druggists have it. Look for the name Bayer before you take a cross on every Aspirin tablet.

Get tin of 12 tablets or economical bottle of 24 or 100 at any druggist's.

Why Aspirin Works So Fast

IN 2 SECONDS BY STOP WATCH
An Aspirin tablet starts to disintegrate and go to work.

What happens in these glass happens in your stomach—ASPIRIN starts to dissolve in a matter of a few minutes after taking.

When in Pain Remember These Pictures
—ASPIRIN DOES NOT HARM THE HEART—

if you're not mighty careful, you'll have your head pulled under."

"Huh. Still I don't quite see. If old man Carr is losing money, why does it out? Where's it coming from?"

"I've tried to tell you. God help you if you try to keep old Joe Carr's head above water. He'll only drown you both. But you'd better run down there yourself, Mr. Keene, and take a look at things."

"Thanks. I'm going to do exactly that."

As Gerald Keene rose and took his hat, Simon Burwell got a glimpse of gray eyes that narrowed in the glare and of a mouth that was almost straight above a full lower lip. The knowing vice-president grinned a little.

"I think my visitor will go far," he muttered. "I never even asked him what his occupation is. . . . But a man used to selling bonds! He doesn't learn much about a ranch. However . . . Old Judge Frame evidently takes an interest in him. . . . And I'm well quit of the business. But he rose and walked to the long window and watched his late caller as he left."

A half-hour later Gerald Keene plunged through the door of a hotel room, slammed the door and gripped the shoulder of a man who was sitting in a chair by the window watching the world spin past between the toes of his boots on the sill.

"Duro," he said, "we're in a mess right up to our hocks. I swear I don't see any answer to it. . . . His lean face lit and his eyes twinkled. There are eyes that gleam and eyes that twinkle. The twinkling there is a difference. One has humor; the other has none. Stone studied his friend for a brief moment."

"Shoot," he said. "Well, I gave old man Burwell my letter of introduction and he told me all he knew about the Hour-glass ranch. It seems that by my uncle's will half the ranch is mine; the other half belongs to his old partner, Joe Carr. He lives on the Hour-glass with his daughter and has made a flat failure of it. If either of us die the other gets the entire ranch. . . ."

"What could he tell you about your uncle?" demanded Stone. "Very little; only that he was a hovable old fellow and that he was mighty fond of Carr. Oh! He told me, too, that two men, Dustin and Goddard, in the past few years have bought up a lot of scrip and started a ranch and so to the Hour-glass. They call it the Broken Spur. But my uncle said Carr drinks a bit and is convinced that Dustin and Goddard have been systematically looting the Hour-glass for years. Too bad about old man Carr's drinkin', isn't it?"

"It sure is. You can reform anybody but a systematic drinker. Go on." "That's all, Burwell said there a regular feud between the two ranches that reached the status of a Civil War on pay-days. I reckon old man Carr's been shootin' off his mouth too much after a drinkin' spell. You know how it is. They say a lot more's they ever started to say. Could you find out anything?"

"A little. While you were over at the bank I hunted up a man I know. You see, I used to work for the Lazy M in Nebraska. They were a member of the Stock-raisers Association and that's a lucky break in a cattle country. Just because Nebraska went crazy over Free Silver's no reason her people shouldn't be sane in spots. Old Ben Lyon, who used to be their attorney, is practicing here now. I saw his shingle. I went to see him while you were with Burwell. . . ."

"Well . . . go on . . ."

Stone thoughtfully rolled a cigarette and went on as though talking to himself. "Ben says he's known Joe Carr since he was a pup. He says that, drunk or sober, old Carr is as straight as a liar but that for some years he's been up against hard luck. Just plain up against it. About three years ago a pony named him against a buckin'-post in a corral and busted hell out of his right leg. That's when he began to drink, I reckon. It busted him up a good deal. Not enough to keep him from riding, but enough to make him a poor bet on a ranch that needs two good eyes. He's got a fine manager in one Frank Crewe, but they just can't make both ends meet."

"What became of that bill the store sent us?"

"Oh, I sent it back marked insufficient funds."

The American flag of 15 stars and 15 stripes was in official use for 23 years, from 1795 to 1818.

Carried Out Old Idea

Peter The Great First Thought Of

Praise to whom praise is due—and most assuredly praise is due to the Russian engineer, Serge Xyk, entrusted by the Soviet government with the gigantic task of linking the Baltic and the White sea by means of a canal, said to be the biggest in the world. It was in December, 1931, that operations started under the most discouraging conditions. To begin with, an efficient staff had to be recruited for the most part from young graduates with little else but enthusiasm for their equipment. Then there were the natural obstacles—floods, intense cold, difficulties of supplying the necessary building materials, food for the workers, etc. On top of this there were no skilled craftsmen to be found in the locality and a totally insufficient number of unskilled workers. Not the least remarkable of Xyk's achievements is the method by which convicts, to the number of about ten thousand, were converted into willing workers by promises of freedom if they faithfully performed their duties for the benefit of the country. Many inspiring tales are told of the changing of heart of criminals to self-respecting patriots, who labored with a will to get the job completed on time—it was finished in nineteen months.

It is said that Peter the Great had such a plan in mind when he transferred the capital from Moscow to St. Petersburg. His idea was to utilize the two great lakes, Onega and Ladoga, for the purpose and this has now been done. On the Onega-White sea section sixteen dams have to be built, with 35 narrow canals, 22 discharge basins, 19 locks, of which 13 had to be constructed in hard rock over a hundred feet below sea level; while millions of cubic yards of rock had to be blasted and removed, and a million and a half trees cut down and carted away.

Furs By Airplane

Pur trading in Canada today contrasts strikingly with that in the old days. Recently a shipment of furs valued at $125,000, consisting of forty-four bales weighing 1,340 pounds, was carried by airplane from Northern Alberta into Edmonton, the capital of the province. This was the largest and most valuable fur cargo brought from the North by plane. In pioneer days many weeks of slow travel were required to make such a delivery.

Eastern and northeastern Indian tribes have a tradition of a descent from the sky as the beginning of human inhabitants on the earth; Indian peoples of the mountainous and plateau regions of the south and southwest believe their ancestors descended from the underworld.

Modern Marvels

Activity Of Science Has Narrowed Space And Shortened Time

The other day a gentleman in Jasper, Alberta, talked to a friend on the S.S. Empress of Britain on the high seas. The conversation was sent by wires to New York, thence to London, and then transmitted through the radio channel back to the vessel. This hook-up was made in fast time, and the three minutes' talk was quite clearly heard.

Just recently, Premier Bennett, sitting in Ottawa, spoke briefly in dedication of a giant electric sign placed on the Grand Building opposite Canada House in London, England; and his words were written in a running line of illuminated electric letters at the foot of this same sign. A moment later the premier pressed a lever and the sign itself sprang to light.

These two incidents are typical of the marvel of the modern world, a marvel that has been achieved through the activity of science. Space has been narrowed and time shortened. Nor has any of the glamour or excitement or the salt of satisfaction been taken out of living thereby.—Winnipeg Free Press.

A Banker's Passport

Carries Engraved Portrait Clipped From Ten Dollar Bill

All passports bear a photograph of the holder, but there is one property authorized and issued to a Canadian with his photograph—it carries an engraved portrait clipped from a $10 Bank of Montreal bill. The holder's name is Sir Frederick Williams-Taylor, a director and formerly general manager of the Bank of Montreal.

The circumstances under which Sir Frederick clipped the bill and attached the engraving to his passport application are not known, but this well known Canadian exercised the usual caution attributed to bankers by retaining the serial numbers in order that the bill might be replaced by a new note.—Financial Post.

THE RHYMING OPTIMIST

By Aline Michaelis

LEXER

Life would defeat us as we go by. Yet, can she cheat us, though she may try?

Though she forget the promises made, Think, can we yet be wholly betrayed?

For all her scornings, Of hope's bright gleams, In Youth's glad morning She gets fair dreams.

She gave us laughter And love's sweet cheer; Then, when we asked We need not fear.

Though youth must perish This boon endures; Brave hearts still cherish Bright, bygone lure.

Infantile Paralysis Vaccine

Canadian Research Worker Has Developed Vaccine For Dread Disease

Discovery of an apparently effective infantile paralysis vaccine was explained to 3,000 delegates and lay members at the closing session of the American Public Health Association convention.

Dr. Maurice Brodie, young Canadian research leader formerly of Ottawa, Ont., now connected with the New York City health department, described recent experiments with the poliomyelitis vaccine which apparently has proved successful on a group of human volunteers, including Dr. William H. Park, head of the New York City health department research laboratories. Dr. Josephine Mead, Dr. Brodie himself and number of children.

Bees As Messengers

German Beekeeper Finds Them Better Than Carrier Pigeons

A German beekeeper has found new use for bees. They are no longer to be mere honey-gatherers and wax-builders, but messengers! He has written messages on scraps of paper and fastened them to the backs of bees. The bees have quickly brought them back to the hive, and never has a bee failed to deliver the goods. The beekeeper, Herr Bernhard Gubler, says bees are less likely than pigeons to fall into the wrong hands.

Catherine di Medici is said to have been the first European woman to use tobacco.

Little Helps For This Week

"I have called upon you that Thou wilt hear me O God; incline Thine ear unto me and hear my speech." Psalm 16:1.

"Ye pour out your heart before Him: God is a refuge for us." Psalm 42:8.

Whatever the care that breaks they rest, Whatever the wish that swells they breast, Spread before God that wish, that care.

And change anxiety to prayer, Trouble and perplexity drive us to prayer, and prayer driveth away trouble and perplexity.

Whatsoever it is that presseth thee, go tell to thy Father, put the matter into His hand and so shalt thou be freed from the dividing, perplexing care the world is full of. When thou are either to do or suffer anything go tell God about it, acquaint Him with thy trouble, and thou hast done with caring. No more care, but quiet sweet diligence in thy duty and dependence on Him for the carrying of thy matters. Roll thyself and thy cares as one burden on thy God.—R. Leighton.

Rumania Has New Law

Men Must Have Government License To Grow Beards

The wearing of beards in Rumania is under government ban. Hereafter a permit will be required for such facial adornments. Uniformed government couriers departed on horseback for a tour of Rumanian villages to announce the new regulations. By bugle calls and drum-beatings they assembled village residents in the public squares to announce the ruling. The regulation created consternation among members of the orthodox Jewish population, who, by Mosaic law, are not allowed to cut their beards.

Found in the woods from New Brunswick to Manitoba, the blue crocus, a poisonous plant of the barberry family, is also known as papoose root, squaw root, yellow ginseng, and blueberry root. The plant is extremely bitter to the taste and is hardly likely to be eaten, except by children tempted by the attractive appearance of the berry-like seeds.

WHICH ONE?

The Lethbridge Herald states: Friends will be sorry to hear Harry Smith is a patient in St. Michael's hospital.

"Julia," said a friend of the family to the new washerwoman, "have you seen my fiancé?"

"No, miss. It ain't been in the wash yet."

The town's caterpillar became disgusted and tried to bury itself on Monday morning. A charge of attempted suicide will likely be laid.

STOCK OFFERED IN NEW CENTRAL BANK

Shares of the Bank of Canada to the amount of $50,000,000 are offered for public subscription by Hon. Edgar N. Rhodes, minister of finance. The shares are of $50.00 each and are offered at par. Not more than 50 shares may be held by any one person and only persons who are British subjects, ordinarily resident in Canada, or Canadian corporations controlled in Canada, may own stock. These provisions will ensure a widespread interest in all parts of Canada in the sale of the stock of an institution in which parliament has entrusted wide powers and responsibilities affecting the financial and economic welfare of Canada.

The Bank is authorized to pay cumulative dividends from its profits, after provision for expenses, depreciation, etc., at the rate of 4 1/2 per cent per annum, payable half-yearly, which is considered to be an attractive return in comparison with ruling interest rates on high grade securities. Surplus profits are to be applied to the rest fund of the Bank, or paid into the Consolidated Revenue Fund, as provided by the Bank of Canada Act.

The subscription list opened on September 17th and close on or before September 21st. The shares were offered simultaneously in every part of Canada on the 17th instant and whether or not the list is closed before September 21st, consideration will be given to all applications posted not later than midnight of the day on which the list is closed.

Subscriptions are to be mailed direct to the minister of finance, Ottawa, and must be accompanied by an initial payment of $12.50 for each share and by a statutory declaration which forms part of the application form, evidencing the eligibility of the applicant to become a shareholder. The balance of the subscription price, $37.50 a share, will be payable on January 2nd, 1935, on or about which date the Bank is expected to commence operations.

The official prospectus and application forms are obtainable from post offices, banks and other financial institutions.

One of the important functions to be performed by shareholders is the election of seven directors who, with the governor and deputy governor of the Bank, form the board of directors who will supervise and control the conduct of the business of the bank. The seven directors are to be elected from diversified occupations, as follows:

Two, whose chief occupation is in primary industry;

Two, whose chief occupation is in commerce or manufacturing;

Three, whose chief occupation is other than in primary industry or commerce or manufacturing.

In the by-laws of the bank, which have recently been promulgated by the governor-in-council, provision is made for the nomination of directors by shareholders and for notice of such nominations to be mailed to each shareholder prior to the shareholders' meeting. For the convenience of those who cannot attend meetings, provision is made for the registration of their votes in accordance with written instructions which they may give to the minister of finance.

One of the first steps to be taken in the organization of the bank, after the stock has been subscribed, will be the nomination and election by shareholders of the first board of directors.

BELLEVUE HAPPENINGS

James Cardie returned Friday from several days' visit to Nelson.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. McIntyre, accompanied by Mr. Clark, were Calgary visitors last week end.

Miss Bell, who had been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Hillary, returned to Calgary last week end.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Green are holidaying at Vancouver.

The inquest into the death of James Pelle has been further adjourned to Tuesday, September 26th, owing to the inability of S. Commis to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. George Gordon, junior, accompanied by Mrs. B. Milne, are visiting at Whitefish, Montana.

Miss Dorothy Turner, who had been holidaying at Vancouver, returned on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Bosely and Mrs. H. Smith returned from a three-week vacation spent at Vancouver and Victoria.

Mrs. James Radford entertained a number of friends at her home on Wednesday evening.

James Tutt was a week-end visitor at Staveland.

Benny Watson is visiting at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Watson.

W. J. Cole, who has been chairman of the Bellevue school board for a number of years, at a special meeting, on Wednesday afternoon handed in his resignation. Mr. Cole will be leaving Friday for Victoria, to join Mrs. Cole, who has been there for some time. Mr. and Mrs. Cole intend to reside there permanently.

COWLEY HAPPENINGS

The young folks of Tennyson school district have organized a recreation club, and will devote the proceeds of all entertainments toward improvements in the school house. A dance held on the 7th was very successful. Lawrence J. Stickle, late teller of the Royal Bank in Cowley, and since residing in Lethbridge, has realized his life ambition to get into aviation. He has succeeded in being enrolled as a cadet in the Royal Flying Corps, London, England, and is on his way there to report for duty.

It may interest local residents to know that Mrs. Hood, at one time teacher of the Cowley school, and since residing in England, was in Lethbridge on September 10th as a delegate from England to the Literary Club.

On Friday night last a dance was held in the Lundbreck hall, under auspices of the Roman Catholic church, which was largely attended. After expenses were met, a balance of $72.50 was added to the church fund.

Mr. and Mrs. James Reddin, of Calgary, are visitors at the Easterbrook ranch home.

Threshing has been held up on account of a snowstorm, which fell on the 19th.

Miss Rosalie Percevaux has gone with a friend by motor to Vancouver, where she may remain several months if she can secure employment.

Cyril Easterbrook is on the road to recovery from a bad case of flu.

Mr. and Mrs. George Birkett, enroute from a motor trip to Spokane to their home in Banff, stopped over the week end here, renewing old acquaintances. Several years ago, Mr. Birkett was manager of the Cowley U.F.A. store. Miss Dorothy Day accompanied them on to Banff from here for a few days visit.

Miss Jean Porter has gone to Calgary, where she is attending normal school.

A shower in honor of Miss Rene Bosetti was held in the Catholic hall on Monday evening. Miss Bosetti is to be married shortly.

Mrs. G. E. Cruickshank and daughter Jean, accompanied by Miss Jean Cruickshank and Miss Isabel Westrup, motored to Lethbridge on Tuesday.

A farewell party was held at Coleman on Monday night, in honor of John Ferstay, who is leaving shortly for Calgary, where he will attend the technical school.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Blackie, of Fernie, were visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. Bamforth over the week end.

The funeral service of Josef Lorenc, who was accidentally killed in the mine, was held Sunday afternoon in the Catholic church. The remains were laid to rest in the S. Theresa cemetery.

The Hillcrest football club, by winning over Corbin in the final game at Blairmore, became holders of the Grand Challenge cup.

Alyc Porayko was united in marriage to Miss Mary Deloki, of Leduc, at Leduc last week. The young couple will make their home in Hillcrest.

Here and There

Reduced fares to cover the Labor Day week-end from August 31 to 12 noon Monday, Sept. 3, have been authorized on the Canadian Pacific Railway between all stations in Canada. Round trip tickets will be at the rate of fare and a quarter and will be good until midnight, Tuesday, September 4.

Returning from White City, London, Eng., aboard Canadian Pacific liner Montcalm, the athletes who represented Canada at the British Empire games came back practically in a body to the number of around 100. They sailed for England aboard L. D. Ditch of York July 20.

Australia is showing very substantial evidence of recovery with continued betterment in sight, is the view of John P. Brophy, Commonwealth Trade Representative at New York, stated when interviewed aboard S.S. Niagara on arrival recently at Victoria.

Fifty per cent ahead of last year at mid-August with prospects for balance of season exceptionally good for the Canadian Pacific hotels and resorts in the Rockies is reported by A. E. Robertson, assistant general manager, in charge of the Company's western hotels.

Prominent British parliamentarians are visiting the Maritime Provinces this year, including Prime Minister J. Ramsay MacDonald. The Canadian Pacific liner Montcalm recently carried as a passenger Dr. E. Leslie Burgin, M.P., parliamentary secretary of the British Board of Trade, who will stay at St. Andrews-by-the-Sea, Saint John and Digby, N.S.

Canadian Pacific flagship Empress of Britain claimed a new record recently for the Quebec-Bourbon Atlantic crossing, making the trip in four days, six hours and fifty-eight minutes, being thirty-four minutes under her own previous record set in August, 1933.

Montagu Norman, governor of the Bank of England, whose evasive tactics have given newspaper men some strenuous times in the past few years, actually posed for a photograph aboard the Canadian Pacific liner Duchess of Bedford on his return to England recently. "Walk till I get my hat on straight," was his comment to the astonished and gratified photographer.

Railway building is by no means at an end in Canada. E. W. Beatty, K.C., chairman and president of the Canadian Pacific Railway, stated recently following an extended inspection trip through Western Ontario. "Completion of our development with probably mass construction of more railway mileage to outlying districts as prospects and development warrant," he said.

LOCAL APPEAL FOR FIGHT AGAINST WAR AND FASCISM

Following is copy of a circular letter, which has been distributed throughout this district in connection with a meeting to be held in the Blairmore School tonight.

"To Mr. 'So and So':

Dear Sir: On Oct. 6th a national congress against war and Fascism will be held in Toronto. Delegates from all parts of Canada will assemble to lay plans for the building of a nation-wide movement to prevent war and Fascism.

"The rapid preparations for another imperialistic war are instigated by the increased production of armaments in all countries, feverish preparations for war go forward, one disarmament conference after another has broken down and failed to curb the production of war weapons.

"In Central Europe, the workers and middle classes suffer under Fascism; all rights of organization have been taken from the workers; all civil liberties have been taken from the people; industrial and finance capital control the countries through armed thugs, and the workers and middle classes are driven into misery and degradation.

"There are many manifestations of preparations for war and Fascism in Canada and the U.S.A. Steel and munition plants are working full time. The industrial codes, which take from the workers the right to strike and makes Labor Unions appendages of the State, are being put into force by decrees of the state.

"Unless the middle and the working classes of all countries draw rapidly together and build a mighty movement against war and Fascism, all civil liberties of the people will be lost and the world plunged into another shambles, which will far excel 1914-1918 in bloody horror.

"In Britain, France and U.S.A., and some parts of Canada, the movement against war and Fascism is being rapidly built. Liberal-minded members of the working and middle classes are meeting together and appointing persons to write and speak publicly against the horrors of war and Fascism. Delegates are being elected to the national congresses, where concrete plans will be laid to co-ordinate the movement, which will prevent war and Fascism.

"The Crows' Nest Pass should take its part in this movement. We therefore appeal to you to attend the conference against war and Fascism, which will be held in the Blairmore School house at 8 p.m. on September 6th.

IF WE ONLY COULD . . . . .

A Minnesota Editor moralizes thusly:

"If we could all switch businesses all the way round for just one week, we'd be a lot more sympathetic of the other fellow's problems and know a lot more than we do at present about the cause of his shortcomings and his present failures. Let the banker sell prunes, the grocer pull teeth, the dentist run a garage, the garage man edit the paper, the editor run the bank for just six little work days and we'd all have our eyes so wide open to what the others are up against that we would never have the courage to criticize, nor would we be unsympathetic again. Then if the whole caboodle of us were to move on various farms and operate them for another six days per each, we'd all be so-wise-and-understanding that the peace and harmony prevailing would make this little odd community just about the best place in the world to live in. It can't be done, of course, but we could take the thought to ourselves that we don't know anything about the other man's job and concede that for all we know, he is handling it in good shape.

THE EDITOR'S BEATTITUDES

"Blessed are the merchants who advertise, because they believe in it and in their business; for their prosperity shall increase many fold.

"Blessed are the country correspondents who send in their well written items every week; for fame of their friendly neighbors shall go abroad in the land.

"Blessed is the woman who sends in a written account of a party or wedding, for she shall see the details of the function and the names of her guests correctly reported.

"Blessed are those who do not expect the editor to know everything but who call up and tell him whenever an interesting event occurs to them, for they shall have a newsy paper in their town.

"Blessed are they who get their copy in early; for they shall occupy a warm place in the editor's heart.

"Blessed are all those who co-operate.

20th, 1934. Delegates to the national congress, which will be held on October 6th in Toronto, should be elected at this conference.

Yours sincerely,

W. KNIGHT,

C. SHAW,

On behalf of the Initiative Committee."

Russia And The League Of Nations

Soviet Russia having applied for admission into the League of Nations, the burning topic at Geneva and in many of the European capitals is whether that application should be approved or rejected. Russia has the powerful support of Great Britain, France and Italy as well as of some other countries, but is opposed by a number of the smaller nations, including, so it is reported, Belgium, Poland and Greece, while Switzerland, the home of the League, is said to be sharply divided on the question. The London Times has expressed the belief that Canada and Ireland will line up with the opposition.

Unless unanimity can be reached through advance negotiations and conferences, the forthcoming meeting of the General Assembly of the League will be the scene of an animated, possibly bitter, debate, with the further possibility of the failure of Russia's application because of an unanimous decision cannot be reached. It looks like a knotty problem to solve, yet most people in this country would be inclined to regard it as a very simple one.

It is not necessary to recite the reasons which led to the establishment of the League of Nations, nor to set forth its aims and objectives. Its very name implies that it was the intention of the founders that it should include not some nations, but all nations. As long as certain nations remain outside its membership, the League is not as strong as it should be. It is weakened by the absence of even one nation. In the past one of its great weaknesses has resulted from the refusal of the United States to join, plus Russia's absence, and the early stipulation that barred Germany. Now that Russia is willing to come in, why refuse to permit it?

The only answer forthcoming is that the Government of Russia is Communist. Premier Tslardis of Greece is reported as saying that he will vote against Russia's election to membership on the ground that it would sanction international Communism. This may be offered as an excuse, but surely it is not a valid and legitimate reason for exclusion.

Italy is a member of the League, but that does not constitute sanction of international Fascism by the other nations of the world. Other nations may set up or bow to dictatorships or other forms of autocratic government, some might turn socialist, others become more and more democratic, and others again return to absolute monarchies. Such developments are the right and privilege of the people of the nations concerned, but they do not constitute reasons why they should be treated as outlaws among the nations of the world.

The people of any country have the sole right to determine their own form of government,—that which in their opinion is best suited to their particular conditions and state of development. This is one of the fundamental principles underlying the structure of the League of Nations, namely, self-determination of peoples and nations. Failure to recognize it, and give effect to it, would quickly destroy the usefulness of the League and ultimately destroy the League itself as an organization.

There are times when, following internal upheavals and revolutions, a nation may lose the diplomatic recognition of other nations, but this is largely because the fact is not clearly established as to which of the contending groups really enjoys the support of the people in such country and can therefore be safely recognized as "the Government". But when a Government once becomes established, recognition of it by other nations as a rule quickly follows. The means by which it came into being, its principles and policies are a matter for its own people to approve or disapprove, and recognition by other nations does not necessarily imply approval.

The Union of Soviet Socialist Republics (Russia) has an established form of government; has had for years. It is recognized by most of the other nations. Agreeably or otherwise, it is accepted by the Russian people. What reason is there, then, why Russia should not be recognized by the nations acting jointly through the League of Nations and full membership in that body be granted to it? It is silly to argue that the granting of such membership in the League is to sanction international Communism. One might as well argue that to now admit the United States would be to give international sanction to all the policies and implications of Roosevelt's "New Deal", or in the case of Germany to place the stamp of approval on Hitler and his Nazi program and doctrine.

Regardless of what one may think of Russian Socialism and the policies and methods of the Soviet Government, and quite opposed as one may be to the introduction of similar policies and methods into their own country, people the world over should wish Russia well. It is far better for the world that Russia should succeed and not fail in its experiment, and certainly it would be unchristian and cruel towards the Russian people to desire failure. Even though the Russian system may not be desired nor prove beneficial elsewhere, it may suit Russia in its present state of development.

The best way to promote international understanding and goodwill, and thus promote the cause of peace, is for the nations to get together,—the closer the better. And the best way yet devised for such getting-together is in the General Assembly of the League of Nations. Therefore, let every nation in who is willing to join, and do everything possible to bring in those which presently are averse to joining.

Believe It Or Not

Where are you, Bob Ripley? Miss Jane Stone of Great Barrington, Mass., owns a goldfish named Xerxes and like his namesake, the Persian king, he suffered great disaster. The bowl in which Xerxes was swimming fell on the floor and broke. Rescued from his wrecked home, Xerxes was placed in another bowl and since then has been swimming backwards.

Diarrhoea, Dysentery, Colic Cramps and Stomach Pains

Prompt treatment with Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry in such cases relieves the pains, checks the looseness of the bowels, and thus does away with the suffering, the weakness, and oftentimes the collapse associated with attacks of this kind.

It does this by checking the too frequent and irritable action of the stomach, and bracing up the weakened system, thus making it a remedy for the treatment of bowel complaints of both young and old.

Famed Racing Husky Dead

St. Godard Mourns Loss Of Nine-Years-Old Team Leader

Emil St. Godard, world champion dog racer, mourns the death of his gallant leader Toby, one of the greatest dogs that ever stepped in harness.

Toby died at Teterborough, New Hampshire. The veteran of races across the continent suddenly suffered stomach trouble, and although three doctors worked on him they failed to save his life.

Toby was a nine years old. He was part husky and part greyhound, a combination of staying power and speed. He was raised in the St. Godard kennels and won 28 long distance classics.

Toby led the St. Godard string in six of the gruelling 200-mile derbies between The Pas and Flin Flon. He was also well known to sportsmen in Ottawa, Quebec and New Hampshire.

"It's tough all right," said Emil, when friends heard the news. "Toby was a wonderful dog. I intended to leave him in August to start training again in New Hampshire. I will have to train a new leader. I have several of Toby's pups at the ranch and expect to work one of them in Toby's place."

DOCTOR SAID SHE MUST REDUCE

Fat a Danger to Her Heart

Overweight is not merely a matter of appearance—it affects health too. Excess fat robs the system of energy—the internal organs grow lax and slow down under the burden—and under strain is put on the heart. Here is an instance. A woman writes:—

"I have been treated by specialists, who tried to reduce my weight, and I suffered with heart attacks. But no matter what they gave me, nothing would help. Since I have been taking Kruschen, everyone wherever I go exclaims about how much flesh I have lost. I took it at first for rheumatism, and it has done me a world of good, as well as greatly reducing my weight. Before Christmas I weighed 224 lbs. Now I am considerably less—in fact, a coat I had worn the year before I had to take to be altered before I was able to wear it again. I have not really made any difference with my diet, so there is only Kruschen to thank." (Mrs. M. S.)

The "fat" in Kruschen assists the internal organs to throw off each day the waste and poisons that encumber the system. Then, with a little, that ugly fat goes—slowly, yes—but surely.

Alberta In The Lead

Province Has Highest Marriage Rate In Canada

A bridegroom of 84 with a bride of 18; 10 brides under 16; three mothers who have borne their third child when but 16 years old; two men who married when they were more than 80 years old are some of the highlights of a report compiled from the vital statistics records of Alberta. The province has the highest marriage rate in the Dominion and the highest birth rate west of Quebec.

Englishmen are still the greatest progenitors, followed by Ukrainians and Germans. Alberta does not follow the majority, for November proved the popular month in which to be married.

Alberta boys apparently do not care to assume marital duties as readily as do the girls, for while there were only 76 grooms under the age of 21, no less than 1,416 girls of a total of 5,954 became brides before they reached their majority.

Blind Man Climbs Mountain

Portland Publisher Aided By Dog Makes Long Ascent

Although he is totally blind, Ed G. Robbins, publisher of a Portland weekly newspaper, has realized his long ambition of climbing the snow-capped summit of Mt. Hood. He was aided by his faithful police dog, "Treble", in making the long ascent.

Asked what he wanted to climb the peaks for, the blind editor said: "For the experience, man, for the experience!"

Canadian fresh, beef, fresh pork, and fresh lamb have a much wider range of export than is generally believed. Japan, Alaska, Barbados, Jamaica, and other West India Islands, Newfoundland, St. Pierre et Miquelon, the United States, and the British Isles being the chief countries of destination during the month of July 1924.

Rarest Metal On Earth

Newly Discovered Mineral Is Worth $1,000,000 An Ounce

The rarest metal on earth—worth more than $1,000,000 an ounce—was exhibited before the American Chemistry Society by an assistant chemistry professor who announced the first isolation of proactinium.

A. V. Brossé brought from the University of Chicago one-tenth of a gram of the metal, which he succeeded in isolating after years of work.

Proactinium is "squeezed" out of pitchblende. The latter ore is reportedly plentiful in the Great Bear Lake and other northern districts of the Canadian west.

Hard and silvery, the proactinium clung to a fine, one-inch thread of tungsten like drops of mercury. Its rays are more penetrating than radium. Its scientific and medical possibilities are wide. It emits the same kind of "Alpha, Beta and Gamma" rays as radium, and Dr. Brossé said his "Cannum" rays, which are the ones used in medicine, will penetrate more deeply than those of radium. Its "Alpha" rays, which are fast-travelling particles, fly farther than similar particles from radium.

But proactinium does not give off nearly as many of the rays of any of the three types. It has a "half-life" of 32,000 years, which means that in that period it will radiate away half of its metallic substance. Radium, in contrast, has a "half-life" of 1,600 years.

The difference in rate promises to make possible medical experiments with the new metal that are too dangerous with the faster-acting radium. This tenth of a gram of a thread is all the proactinium which could be squeezed chemically out of a ton of ore. It cost $5,000. At the same rate an ounce will cost $1,250,000.

Oldest United States Town

Orabi, Arizona, Inhabited Since 1200 States Scientist

Fortunately for St. Augustine, Florida, and Santa Fe, New Mexico, the oldest town in the United States has no chamber of commerce or advertising genius to dispute their claims. For Dr. Paul S. Martin, archaeologist at the Field Museum of Natural History, asserted that the Hopi Indian settlement of Orabi in the Arizona reservation is the oldest continuously inhabited community in the land.

While St. Augustine was settled about 1565 and Santa Fe dates back to about 1577, Orabi has been the home town to generations of Hopis since 1200 A.D., or earlier. Dr. Martin convinced himself of the antiquity of the Orabi pueblo by archaeological studies there.

No Novelty In Canada

Dominion Can Easily Match Soviet's Big Fish Story

Publicity is being given to the fact that 40-pound trout have been caught in Lake Sevan in Armenia and that the Soviet government has placed $2,000,000 on trout fry in the lake this year. Forty-pound trout are no novelty in Lake Superior and millions of trout and whitefish fry are placed in the lake every year. In fact, trout of 30 to 40 pounds are not exactly novelties even in some inland lakes.

THAT DEPRESSED FEELING IS LARGELY LIVER

Wake up your Liver Bile

—Without Calomel

You are "feeling punk" simply because your liver isn't pouring its daily two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels. Digestion and elimination are being hampered, and your entire system is being poisoned.

What you need is a liver stimulant. Something that goes faster than calomel, mineral water, oil, laxative candy or chewing gum or roundabout which only move bile slower—quoting the real cause of trouble, your liver.

Take Carter's Little Liver Pills. Purely vegetable. No harsh medicine (calomel). No purgative. No laxative. No cathartic. No irritation. No danger. 25c. at all drug stores.

Japan Grows Own Wheat

Country Now Able To Supply Its Own Requirements

The Japanese government's five-year wheat growing project, inaugurated in 1932 by the ministry of agriculture and forestry to enable the country to supply its own requirements of the cereal, has achieved its objective two years ahead of time.

Estimates submitted at a conference in Tokyo of the chief officials of the wheat encouragement bureau in the various prefectures showed the wheat crop in Japan this year will yield 44,849,000 bushels, while the estimated consumption of the country is 45,000,000 bushels.

Since the domestic crop is now practically equal to consumption, the officials have decided to relax their efforts to increase production and to concentrate their attention on effecting improvement in quality.

Although bread by no means surpasses rice, which remains the staple cereal, it has been popular as a food for several years and army regulations prescribe mixing wheat with rice before boiling it for soldiers' rations. The wheat constituents counteract the tendency of polished rice alone to cause beriberi (kakkie as it is called in Japanese).

Many households consequently now mix some wheat with the rice before boiling it for the family table with resultant good effects on the general health.

Due to the world rise in wheat prices, Japanese flour mills have been falling back recently chiefly on domestic wheat. It is likely that the mills will continue to import a fair quantity of Canadian and Australian wheat of qualities not yet produced there, for mixing purposes, for some time at least.

The Art Of Making Tea

Method To Use In Order To Obtain The Full Delicious Flavor

No beverage in the world is as universally popular as tea. It is used in nearly every civilized country and this delightful drink not only refreshes and invigorates the mind and body, but also serves as the medium by which people meet in a spirit of friendship and understanding the world over.

If the following directions (which were supplied by "Saluda" Tea) are followed, each cup will yield the full delicious flavour that makes tea so enjoyable.

1. Use a tea of fine quality.

2. Use fresh water always.

3. Use a new and clean tea-pot.

Scald out the pot to make it warm, place in it a level teaspoon of tea for every cup desired, and one for the pot. Add fresh boiling water. Allow to steep about five minutes and stir slightly before serving.

Tea made according to the above rules will be fragrant, delicious and completely satisfying.

MINING INDUSTRY COMES SECOND TO AGRICULTURE

Calgary.—In the heart of this agricultural area of the Dominion a federal official cautioned that the mining industry of Canada was gaining rapidly upon agriculture in export value to the country.

Dr. Charles Cammell, deputy minister of mines, addressing the western annual meeting of the Canadian Institute of Mining and Metallurgy, declared agricultural exports increased in 1933-34 by 13 per cent. while in the same period exports of minerals and their products jumped by 60 per cent. over previous year's statistics.

In 1933 the value of Canada field crops amounted to $422,148,000 and mineral "crop" $220,501,000. The mining industry now ranked second only to agriculture among the primary producing industries of the country. "These figures," declared Dr. Cammell, "strikingly illuminate the mineral industry in the great and growing role it plays nowadays in Canada's foreign trade."

Describing the intensive search for gold in the Dominion, and its encouraging results, Dr. Cammell added: "And it may not be amiss to stress that international activities are no slackening, or likely slackening in the future in the demand for the precious metal."

"The enhanced value of the gold exports has had much to do with the Dominion's total foreign trade immense gold resources, in raising May 31, 1934, to $1,150,568,900 from $923,003,560.

"The increasing price of gold has added immensely to the Dominion's wealth. A great boon has been conferred upon Canada with her immense resources, in the raising of the price of the one product that above all others is most readily salable," declared Dr. Cammell.

The deputy minister said the world demand for gold was now greater than ever. History showed the price of gold had been periodically raised through the ages but never lowered. He did not believe it was likely now to recede to the recent standard level of $20.67 per ounce.

Back To The Land

Unemployed Man Becomes Successful Manitoba Farmer

Winnipeg.—Two years ago F. Langner was one of Winnipeg's unemployed. Weary of fruitless job-seeking, he accepted city relief for himself and his family.

To-day he is a successful Manitoba farmer at Rosser. C. E. Simonite of the back-to-the-land commission said Langner came into his office, placed a bundle of durum wheat on his desk and announced he had sold 1,700 bushels of it at 98¢ cents a bushel. The premium was paid because of the wheat's quality.

He has more to sell and expects a gross of $2,500 this year.

Wants Money Back

Has Unused Railway Ticket Purchased In 1970

Chicago.—John Watt isn't going to take that train ride he bought a ticket for 1970—he wants his money back.

The Chicago office of the Canadian National-Grand Trunk Railways reported that Watt, who lives at Ashburndale, Mass., bought the ticket in Chicago for passage between Detroit and Boston.

Watt presented the ticket and it was forwarded to the general offices in Montreal, with the request for his money back.

The ticket, Watt said he was told, was good "until used."

Would Stop Hasty Strikes

Chicago.—Action aimed at preventing hasty calling of printers' strikes was taken by the International Typographical Union, in convention here. Delegates voted 67 change the union rule which required a strike vote of local members within 24 hours after its authorization by the executive council of the international, to allow the council discretion in fixing the time for a vote.

Deplores Intrigue

De Valera Of Irish Free State Rejoins To Russia And League

Geneva.—Small nations raised their voices as the League of Nations assembly opened general discussion—Austria in fervent declaration and the Irish Free State in fervent protest.

Chancellor Kurt Schuschnigg, rigidly guarded by secret service men, stated Austria's case, reiterating Austria's insistence on independence.

Long, lean Eamon de Valera, president of the Irish Free State, followed Schuschnigg and somewhat heatedly declared he did not object to Russia's entry into the league, but he did object, vigorously, to the backstairs intrigue going on over the wording of the invitation to Russia.

De Valera demanded the whole matter be put before the league assembly.

Schuschnigg stressed his words as he declared the intention of his government to preserve Austria's internal and external independence. He denied the Austrian co-operative state was reactionary. "We are not reactionaries," he said, "but sufficiently realists to dispense with a backward glance at the policy of an earlier day."

Mr. de Valera said flatly that he did not like the lobbying that has been conducted to secure Russia's entry. He objected to the "hotel-room intrigues," the drafting and re-drafting of the vote of invitation.

He was ready to vote for Russia's entry, he said, although the Irish like the Free State and of the Soviet were poles apart. From inquiries he has made he gathered that Russia would have the necessary two-thirds majority vote to enter the assembly, and that Russia was ready to join.

"Then why not get down to business at once, and bring the matter before the assembly without attempting to deprive any state of its right under the convention to object to Russian membership," he demanded.

Indians Claim Rights

Mistawans Tribe Alleges Bands Funds Improperly Spent

Prince Albert, Sask.—Aged Chief George Deaver, 78-year-old head of the Mistawans Indians, testified in the exchequer court hearing of the band's petition of right here that in speeches made at the signing of the treaty in 1876, Queen Victoria promised that medicine would be supplied free to the Indians on their reserve located west of here.

In their petition the Indians allege that the department of Indian Affairs improperly spent $21,275 of the band's funds. Medicine and education, which they claim were to be free, were charged against funds held in trust by the government for the band. Other expenditures for a donation by the family of the late Sir Edward Kemp, Toronto. The hospital was ablaze with light before the steamer left to proceed northward.

Electric Lights In North

Mission Hospital Generates Its Own Electricity

Ottawa.—Encountering severe gales, ice, rain and fog, the steamer Naacope, carrying the 1934 department of interior's expedition to the posts in the Canadian Arctic archipelago, continues to make progress on this season's patrol.

A highlight of the visit to Pangnirtung was the installation in the Anglican mission hospital of a plant for the generation of electricity, a donation by the family of the late Sir Edward Kemp, Toronto. The hospital was ablaze with light before the steamer left to proceed northward.

Receives Appointment

Winnipeg.—Appointment of W. A. Mather, formerly assistant to the vice-president in Montreal, to be general manager of Western lines of the Canadian Pacific Railway was announced here by W. N. Neal, vice-president of Western lines. Mr. Neal also announced appointment of C. A. Cottrell, general superintendent of the British Columbia district, to the post of assistant general manager in charge of the British Columbia region including Vancouver Island.

Nickel Production

Ottawa.—A huge increase was shown in the production of nickel for the six months ending June, when it amounted to 65,333,996 pounds as against 52,760,291 pounds for the corresponding period of 1933, the Dominion bureau of statistics reported.

Will Enforce Bird Act

R.C.M.P. Official Issues Orders To Arctic And Sub-Arctic Posts

Montreal.—Instructions were sent out at the closing session of the International Association of Game, Fish and Conservation here by Colonel J. W. Spalding, deputy commissioner of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police, to officers of the force in 140 Arctic and sub-Arctic posts to see that the Migratory Birds Act was obeyed by white men and Eskimos. He stated if there were a like decrease in the number of migratory birds in the next 30 years as there had been during a like period in the past, Canadians of the future would never see wild geese or ducks.

James Brown, of Montpelier, Vt., was chosen president. John Farley, of San Francisco, was elected first vice-president.

Big Ben Is Burnished

Historical London Clock Has New Coat Of Paint

London.—Big Ben has had his face washed and all dotted up with crimson paint and bright gold.

A drab and gloomy landmark when it was put in splints for overhauling, Big Ben reappeared in the same glittering finery as it did in the early sixties.

The gold is real gold, too, applied in the form of the thinnest of gold leaf.

TELL OF HUGE PROFITS FROM WAR MUNITIONS

Washington.—The vast Du Pont Corporation of Delaware was shown before United States senate munitions investigators to have done a war order business totaling $12,245,000 between 1914 and 1918—part of the profits from which went into General Motors stock.

Pierre Du Pont, member of the munitions manufacturing family, told investigators that $47,000,000 of the corporation profits were spent to buy one-fourth of the common stock of General Motors.

Three brothers—Innocent Du Pont, Pierre B. Du Pont and Lambert Du Pont—and their cousin Felix Du Pont, were in the room.

The testimony brought out that Du Pont was the first United States company to receive great war orders. In the first year of the war from September, 1914, to September, 1915, it received $255,000,000 worth of war orders from Europe. In all of 1915 orders totaled $233,000,000. During the year before the war the company's business amounted to only $36,000,000.

The end of the war brought a cancellation of $260,000,000 in contracts held by the Du Pont Company.

"The war's end meant a great change for us," said Pierre "a great change."

A report said the company showed a net loss of $10,601,000 in 1919.

Cargo For Churchill

Livestock Pool And Wheat Pool To Forward Shipments On S.S. Brandon

Saskatoon, Sask.—Co-operatives will play the chief part in furnishing cargo for the second voyage of the S.S. Brandon from Churchill this year. The Saskatchewan Livestock Pool will furnish all the cattle, sending 250 head to the Co-operative Wholesale Society of England. In the hold will go a cargo of wheat from the Saskatchewan wheat pool, which may have the same destination.

The Brandon will leave for London or Birkenhead during the latter part of September. J. C. Hackney, manager of the livestock pool, said the pool will try to make the cattle shipment a representative consignment from northern Saskatchewan, from as many producers as possible who can supply first class quality. It is expected that they will be drawn chiefly from the Prince Albert area.

Export Of Feed

Would Withhold Shipments To The United States

Meila, Man.—Reeves of 12 municipalities in southern Manitoba petitioned the Manitoba government to withhold export licences for feed into the United States until the needs of dried-out areas in the province are fully met.

It was estimated 32,100 tons of fodder will be required for livestock quartered in the southwest this winter. Practically no grain was threatened over a wide area.

Germany Offers To Pay

London.—German importers of yarn, facing a complete shutdown of the source of supply, have offered to pay $250,000 owing to Lancashire cotton companies in 12 monthly instalments. It was announced. In the offer, it was declared essential that delivery of yarn to Germany recommence immediately.

Chinese Demand Food

Inland Province Faces Famine After Summer-Long Drouth

Nanking, China.—The wolf growls loud and louder in famine-stricken Anhwei province.

A summer-long drouth that has scoured fields, dried water sources and made desolate that thickly-populated countryside gave no sign of ending, and hungry desperate farmers swarmed into smaller towns demanding food from rice shops. These closed, fearing attacks.

Advices from the inland province—where the rigors of the winter are as great as those of summer—indicated relief must be forthcoming promptly if widespread disorders and banditry are to be averted.

There were grim stories of hunger-crazed wolves sweeping down on helpless villagers, farmers using their last small supplies of drinking water in fruitless efforts to save parched crops, peasants dying everywhere of hunger, disease and polluted water supplies.

Stronghold Of Peace

Adolf Hitler Pledges Germany To Peaceful Measures

Berlin.—Adolf Hitler again solemnly dedicated Germany to the cause of peace. The reichsfuehrer received the diplomatic corps in the reichs-president's office, last occupied by the late Paul von Hindenburg, and told the assembled envoys:

"The unalterable goal of my policy is to make Germany the stronghold of peace."

ADVOCATE STEPS TO FACILITATE TRADE WITH U.S.

Winnipeg.—Early action by the governments of Canada and the United States toward reciprocal trade concessions was urged by the ninth annual convention of the Canadian Chamber of Commerce here.

Support of reciprocity came as the convention adopted the annual report of the policy committee, which also urged a trade mission to China in 1935 to stimulate Canadian trade in the Orient.

Economy in government and a national unemployed relief policy with the Dominion contributing equitably on a basis of provincial needs also were approved. Administration of relief should be under provincial departments or commissions.

Land settlement as a step toward solving unemployment was advocated. The convention also recommended a Canadian wheat institute to stimulate marketing and use of Canadian wheat in markets of the world and co-operation between federal and provincial governments for protection of the public in sale of securities.

The convention approved steps taken by various federal governments to negotiate trade agreements that would secure concessions for agricultural products in new markets, and urged that every advantage be taken of every possible opportunity to extend this principle.

Appointment of committees by the incoming national council to study the problem of immigration and another to deal with upset social conditions and allied problems was decided. Duplicatory taxation was condemned and steps toward elimination asked.

"This chamber approves the report presented by the joint international committee and the conclusions reached by it at its meetings," declared the policy section dealing with the reciprocity question.

"It notes that on June 12, 1934, the president of the United States was granted by congress authority to enter into foreign trade agreements and to modify existing agreements. It expresses the opinion the governments of Canada and the United States should enter into negotiations at the earliest possible date to determine the extent to which mutual concessions can be arrived at with a view to accelerating the movement of trade between the two countries.

Immediate removal of duplicatory taxation and steps to cut costs of government in the federal, provincial and municipal field were written into the policy report as a result of previous action of the convention. It asked reduction of membership of the federal cabinet, house of commons, senate and provincial legislatures. End of duplication and overlapping of government services such as administration of insurance, company law, agricultural and health and social services, was advocated.

MAY TAKE STEPS TO MAKE CHANGE IN THE B.N.A. ACT

Ottawa.—A letter prepared by Prime Minister R. B. Bennett before his departure for Geneva, has been despatched to all provincial premiers asking for suggestions for a date at which they will meet with the Dominion government in Ottawa to discuss constitutional and other questions, as tentatively planned at the last Dominion-provincial conference.

The letter dated August 31, also asks:

What steps can be taken to reduce the evils of duplicate taxation and produce a more logical allocation of social services now available to Dominion and provinces?

Are the provinces prepared to surrender their exclusive jurisdiction over legislation dealing with such social problems as old age pensions, unemployment and social insurance, hours, and conditions for work, minimum wages, etc., to the Dominion parliament? If so, on what terms and conditions?

Is it desirable to endeavor more clearly to define the respective jurisdiction of the Dominion parliament and provincial legislatures with respect to health and agricultural and other matters in which there is a duplication of effort by federal and provincial authorities?

Consideration of the extent to which there may be more complete co-ordination of the effort of federal and provincial authorities with respect to research work.

Consideration of the extent to which there may be more complete co-ordination of the efforts of federal and provincial authorities with respect to gathering and publication of statistical information and what steps, if any, should be taken to secure uniformity and complete accuracy Canadian statistics.

In the event of it being determined that the legislative jurisdiction of the Dominion parliament and provincial legislatures as at present defined by the British North America Act should be modified, a determination of the form in which the amendments to the America Act should be made.

Appeal For Unemployed

Legion Head Suggests Plan To Help Them Keep Confidence

Calgary.—A plea to all Canadians that efforts be made to prevent unemployed persons from losing confidence in themselves, their country and beliefs, was made here by Brig.-Gen. Alex. Ross, president of the Canadian Legion.

"It is only by proper application of sympathy and understanding we shall be able to help them back to normal life," declared General Ross, "and I can suggest no work more appealing to service clubs than the task of rebuilding these men into normal, healthy citizens."

The Canadian Legion, General Ross intimated, was studying a plan that would provide vocational and physical training for returned men out of work.

May Seize Sweepstake

Ontario May Take Action Under A Federal Statute

Toronto.—Ontario Attorney-General Arthur Robb said the Ontario government would take steps to seize $30,000 won in a sweepstake by John Winibord, Orangeville, Ont., business man. He said he believed the province could attach the money under a federal statute passed last winter making proceeds of sweepstakes "forfeit to His Majesty."

Winibord won the money on a Quebec Army and Navy Veterans' Association sweepstake ticket on Windsor Lad, winner of the St. Leger. He said he would use it for a trip to his native Poland to visit his aged mother.

Unemployment Insurance

Ottawa.—An unemployment insurance bill will be introduced in the House of Commons next session, it was announced by acting Prime Minister Sir George Perley. It will be discussed at the Dominion-provincial conference here this fall and suggestions from the provinces will be welcomed.

Premier Needs Rest

Geneva.—When Prime Minister R. B. Bennett returns from Geneva to England and Canada it is expected he will have to take a good rest. The Canadian prime minister was constrained to resign the bed on which he suffered on the voyage over, as well as the effects of overwork.

Recently Lord Nuffield (formerly Sir William Morris), famous British automobile magnate, stated that the best days of his life were spent on a bicycle and that for health and pleasure he still preferred to tour the country by that means. As a sequel to that statement the British Cycle and Motor-Cycle Manufacturers and Traders Union sent a deputation to Lord Nuffield's home at Cowley and presented him with a new bicycle. This picture shows the happy peer riding his new steed.

An advertising expert is quoted as saying that careful research has shown that a certain well-known metropolitan newspaper is read, on an average, for twenty minutes, while the average country newspaper has a "reading life" of three hours to its credit. It is kept round the house for a week and everyone in the family takes his or her turn in going through it.—Ex.

Due to the increased travel and to meet the demand for sleeping car accommodation, the Canadian Pacific railway has decided to continue its standard sleeper service between Winnipeg and Vancouver on trains 1 and 2; it has been announced from Calgary by G. D. Brophy, district passenger agent. This is the first time in latter years that this service has been continued beyond the summer season, and is regarded as an indication of the continuance of improved general business conditions throughout the west.

Eight lady residents of East Blairmore appeared before Magistrate Gresham on Friday morning, to answer charges of vagrancy preferred by Sergt. Cawsey, of the R.C.M.P. The ladies were represented by J. W. MacDonald, K.C., and S. G. Bannan. The fact was also disclosed that a resolution had been passed by the Blairmore Town Council some time ago, requiring the inmates of the houses to be subject periodically to medical inspection, also that pictures of the inmates were to be posted, by the court together with medical certificates, on the walls of a section of the town hall premises. All eight pleaded guilty to the charge, and were fined $25 and $3.50 costs each, or an alternative of imprisonment with hard labor.

A few years ago, Blairmore could boast of schools, mines, brick yards, cement plant, bakeries, butcher shops, groceries, hardware, dry goods, printing offices and churches, all her own. Now, with a new brand of administration, she can also boast of houses of ill fame—all her own.

When an advertising agent of the Social Credit Chronicle visited a business house in Clarendon last week, he came out in a hurry, having learned that Social Credit and Liberalism worked together much the same as Scotch whiskey mixed with gasoline.

Recently, a Calgary truck stopped at a gas station at Innisfail. Having taken on gas and oil, the driver was just stepping into his car when a piston was thrown clear through the block, and then through a cafe window. The engine was badly wrecked.

Some philosopher has put it this way: Look around among the married women of your acquaintance and you will see that there are blondes, and brunettes and browns and tans and redheads and whiteheads and short and fat and living skeletons, and bean poles, and in betwixt and between. Also there are morons and highbrows, and clinging vines, and bosses, and some man has picked each one of them out as his choice. So there's hope for all.
